Nostra last worked faithfully. Thy reward is at hand. A fateful day draws near. Thy eyes will be opened. It is near the seven, so close that they feel the Glory near. White walls of great beginnings. Glory in thy destiny. It has laid her seal upon the first meeting of Corona Mundi. Such seed shall grow until a mighty tree, let the roots grow deep - the roots are seven. Brave children of My army, what glory awaits thee in the battle, Rush forward into the fight. Carry the banner of the Holy Name, uphold it. It shall blind the one my with its beauty - 1927 - Michael - years of destiny, years of glory in its make - year of light, year of splendor - 1927 - Michael - I have proclaimed it. Look forward and prepare. O you seven gathered together I send My blessings -

Moscow; behold thy children and smile. Young hearts recruited for My army, young apostles ready to spread the light. It pours upon thee this also benign blessings.

Nodra

M. has revealed to thee the pages of the book.
Read their message; study the glory of the hidden meaning — This reveals the path before thee, the path of sacrifice and martyrdom. It is a way fraught with sorrow of body and filled with pain & sorrows, but with spiritual glory. Thou art forewarned, yet I know thou art not daunted.

Hearts aflame... Sacrifice, sacrifice, sacrifice. It is the sesame to salvation. Sibar heard thy first call of service. Sibar answered that call. Thou died for him. Thou may be compelled to die again. Art thou ready? That is the supreme test. The great achievements must have their toll of human endeavor, perhaps life. Face this possibility: death but for this cause — the glory.

I. Has rejoiced in the clearing of the air. The dust is wiped away. Let no second pass in anger.
Love each other. Horeh and thou are brother and sister.
Love each other, ye warriors for land in land thou must fight through fierce battles. It is not easy.
Sorrow even death faces you, but together you may achieve a goal beyond thy dreams. Twin warriors, my young children, prepare for the fight. Hold on each other's arms. March abreast. Face the enemy together.

Modra, Modra, Modra, Dost thou remember the golden gate? Dost thou remember Egypt?

Doth thou remember Tibet?
 When the dream which is thy physical life is over, thou will remember these yesterdays mine & in service.
 My arms have touched thee. My robe has covered thee servant, daughter thy future is not an empty one.
 Thou must bear the brunt of great tasks even crucifixion. Remember, be brave. Thou on the brink of happiness close sorrow as thy cup, but thou shall see the reward. Greater than power, greater than human offerings. Thou shall reach Getsemane. Thou art mine now and forever.
 Remember daughter be brave. I am with you.
 My little Modra.

of Crucifix and Salvation

And beyond, the gates of Eternity

Ye seven children of light. Be ready. The glory of thy father fills this room. Look for the flame, which enfolds thee. Thy father's ray touches each of thee, stirs the flame within thy hearts
 The quivering of thy spirit reveals my message
 The dawn of a new era is immediately before thee

Be equipped for thy labors. Be ready. see all comes before thou art aware. This, my message. Discern its meaning. Rejoice in the trust. Be ready and look for the morrow.

Wonder of Wonders! Earth fragrant with the flowers of creation, radiant with palpitating life, filled with the throbbing of hearts attuned to her music, what is message of thy song? - Glory, glory, glory. I serve a cause of splendor. Rich in fulfillment I serve the cause of my Creator. I sing aloud - listen to my caughtee, the laughter of a Youth facing a picture of fulfillment. Hail to the spring time of Creator, hail the summer of fulfillment, hail an autumn rich in memory, hail a winter of rest in thy God. Oh, that the days were endless, oh that the hours more numberless. For the Glory of true service cannot be contained in time. They extend unto the Infinity, their influence is eternal.

Modra, Modra, Modra —

Let thy eyes behold the sun upon the mountains. What iridescent splendors they reflect. High above the earth sentinels of a force incomprehensible, they have weathered the centuries, they have withstood the ages, they lower leaveward - great stalwart pillars of the world. Look upwards, regard them as thy inspiration rocks of strength weathering the storm, struck by the lightning, blast but ever stalwart Firm pillars - embodiment of strength.

The scene of to morrow's joy ye all shall earn it with strife - Nirvana, Nirvana, Nirvana is before thee Nirvana earned by that holiest of joys ^{for humanity} service, 'Gates of to-morrow'! Behold them!

Look into the blessed gaeden. Thou hast the Key wherein to open them. Behind thee are joys innumerable, joys so tender that the earth quivres at the tale of them. But before thee are joys still greater indescribable. The gates open and what is beyond words cannot utter the beauties therein.

The eye above is blinded by them, the ear is deafened by their Thunder but the spirit understandeth. These are the joys which await the faithful labor and you shall find them. Serve and you shall earn their meaning. The way is straight ahead, the road is service. Therein is the essence of all joy. I say to thee - this joy is a flower of this garden Its buds are now growing, it shall blossom soon.

Immortal flower whose fragrance thou wilt partake (picture) flower of joy: Breathe its fragrance, its blossoms for thee.

My blessings to my children of gladness and laughter -

I smile, I smile, I smile when the echo of thy mirth reaches me!
Happy children, thy father partakes of thy laughter. The room is filled with sun light, joy lingers up the labor^x sweetness and light thy message to thee will bring sweetness and light from thy Father.

- Hand of fate - Hand of Destiny, what dost thou write upon thy golden scroll?
- I write the message of Eternity.
- What is the message of Eternity, Beloved Father?
- The message of the Trilogy

Sacrifice - Joy - Prayer -

- Therein is summed up the glory of the Universe
- The stars tremble and rejoice with the glory of this message
- And man is transfigured in the comprehension of its beauty

- Open thy heart, oh thou sinner!
- Let the flood of knowledge pour in life a stream of light.
- Understanding shall come
- The golden Beauty of the unseen World shall fill thy beings.

Soon thy eyes shall open,

Be ready for the new understanding!

Purge thy hearts of the old prejudices

Clean and refresh thy spirits for the new life immediate before thee.

First thou wilt see the blessed spheres symbols of the Brotherhood of Light Let thy eyes not waver in regarding Them Nor must thy heart shrink

Bathe thy being in their Beauty
The Trilogy has a close relation to the meaning of these spheres -

Remember these messages and thou shalt compare the meaning of the symbol.

Shall reveal more of these symbols soon.
Your lives are beginning to be closely moulded -
The spirits are being entwoven more strongly with each meeting.

The ages of laetific love which binds thy spirits have strengthened the ties and soon the spirits will be as one.

M. is with the guardians of the portals -

Open thy eyes and thou shalt see

Open thy ears and thou shalt hear

The light is near -

Pray, rejoice, sacrifice -

And the gates of Heaven will be opened to you -

The firmament will have no secrets that thou shalt not penetrate -

The joy of Samadhi will be yours

Such is my message to you, my children,

Study its meaning, and devote your lives to the attainment of this bliss -

You art ever aided by thy father's blessings

The fruits of the present labour will soon be apparent and will —

See only part of the building — but the second tower is growing already. The foundation is being build even now, the days of its trial are not yet finished, but do not loose thy courage for thoughts thou seest not the growth it is the in the spirit. It begins to grow. The soul within leaps to renewed life. The making physical ~~and~~ sees not the budding spirit. Suffering is the food upon which the soul is ~~watered~~. Ye who have suffered, ye only understand for he who has resign his all to this suffering born of the search for growth achieves a joy immeasurable. Suffering glorifies the soul and gives to the growing spirit a transcendent beauty, henceforth the school is in the hands of the seven. My seal of protection is upon it, but thou must gain the Harmonic benefit to be derived from the Construction of the temple. A force of tremendous Cosmic consequence controls all the work which you all now undertaking and its effect will be apparent to you within your life time. This is no child's work, that you are attempting, its influence is universal, Nor will it suffer and disintegrate like that other now dying efforts.

The world thirsts for Beauty. The tremendous halo-court which has engulfed its stupor man-kind - arouse these lethargic souls of all their thirst. Beauty alone is the salvation. A legions have lost forever their power to sooth the terrors of humanity. Ye who fight to bring Beauty to the hearts of men are the veritable ~~messengers~~⁽²⁹⁾ the true Apostles. And it is thy Master who ordained thee, then take thy garments of Priesthood. The Apostles of a gospel comprehensible to all humanity Do justice to the order of Beauty and of love and the blessings of our holy Brotherhood shall forever be upon thee. Accept the blessings of my brothers who also sent their benediction —

O domar

The school will be a success and the entire universe will wonder at its phenomenal growth. It will be the centre of beauty and action. It will be the joy of nations. Corazona Mundi will embody a different kind of beauty. Treasures from all the worlds will arrive to be known to everyone. Give your heart and soul to this work which shall never be forgotten by the white Brotherhood. Great spiritual glory will await all ye seers workers —

What does the symbol of the King Br. Thālādā reveal Oh Master?

The portals of the Home of Purity.
Under the portals and the facade of the Universe is Nine.

Within the temple glow the words of wisdom crystallized into forms so luminous and radiant that the eye of the unilluminated is blinded.
I think that the precious gems of the earth are radiant?

I have not yet to see the radiance of thoughts of a world above.

And these gems are the glowing words of Saints and prophets which become the treasures of the world of spirit.

The flowers of that benign Spring come are the thoughts of men's souls which bloom in that eternal garden never to wither but to wreathe their fragrance throughout the countries. Who shall trace the influence of an unresented thought? It life can dure long after its physical influence is forgotten.
Then, adorning the sweet inspiration, which creates it brings happiness to multitudes.

Remember thy thoughts are wonderful weapons.
Arrows to confound or rays of light to comfort and comfort. Choose wisely their use for Karma will repay the good. M. Sri S. has the sun growing brighter in spirit. The waves of love which you bear for each other surround him as an impenetrable wall.

Let the attack of the enemy have it unshaken arm'd surely but the scars of battles are tributes of valour. In love thou shalt be together. A bond beyond earthly comprehension will be to each other. Thou shall be together henceforth through eternity. Together thou shalt reach the heights. Each has a place assigned in the building of the coming culture.

Already is thy work in the next root race known to us, but be together always in soul. Y

Odomar

Remember always the knowledge given to you in the different messages. They contain knowledge of what is ahead. Few mortals know of it. N. is watching while the foundation of Corona Mundi is being laid. Be careful and be sure you understand well its meaning.

Begin slowly and surely and it will reach great heights during your lifetime. It shall go on forever -

Poroorna

I send the gem of which I speak. Polish it, beautify it with thy spirit's capacity cherish it - lay its imprint on thy heart, treasure it with thy soul's might. Amidst life's turmoil treasure the gift I have sent you.

Keep it always in your spirit. It shall be thy happiness and assist you on the path of attainment Ye seven workers be as one in spirit and I shall send you help.

My blessings to you in unity

Das unendlich grosse wächst nicht in der nacht.
Stark müssen und sollen jün erst die Würgeln sein.
und dann erst doch and reifig der Stamm.
Das übereichen schnelle fällt sehr leicht inn und Ihr Schüle wächst mit dem Stamm und lässt die Würgeln aus der Tiefe Eures Herzen sprossen. So bald 120 werden in den Tempel Rommen nach Leicht. Lässt sie von Wenigem worshippers enter. Let them place thereon the offerings. They must come joyfully singing aloud his praises, giving the gifts with song upon their lips. For the gifts given into his blessed Name are the greatest expression of a man's ^{inner} spirit. To approach the altar in song. Let the hymn of Praise resound. Estol the Blessed One.

Listen to the voice within thy heart. It is calling to thee. Listen and understand my daughter a day approaches, a day of light and night must follow. In the hours of night thy heart must light thy path and I shall watch the silent but vigilant tomb of darkness. Dense night of darkness I fear thee not. I bear the lamp within my spirit. The darkness daunles me not oh Father, my heart shall know its faith.

My message shall come ye warriors — Fear not the temple has its guardians. None shall assault it without the Guardians knowledge. I keep My rigid. My warriors shall leave their marning like brutes them to arms. Then shall they gird themselves and come out ready for the battle in my name Be blessed.

When you approach me remember Calmness is of great importance —

Proverba

Years of enlightenment are before you. Be patient. Your spirit must grow. Let thy leaders be as examples to you. Give and act beauty. I accept thy gifts be even small Try to purify your beings. Keep thy eyes on the distant goal. Permit not trivialities to darken your spirits. Think of the lofty.
Remember the path on which you are treading.
Keep beauty in thy hearts. Remember —

Alodra.
He Knocks upon the portals of My temple, also he Knocks loud and enters smiling, Thinking to win My warriors with his benignity But my guardian shall be on the ale d and shall with a smile as weapon strike a dar into his cunning heart. He shall try thee with song he shall try thee with poetry, he shall try thee by flattery. Then thou shall arm thyselfes with song and poetry and flattery and confound him.
And into the pit which de las dag shal he fall and he entered for ever. Then guard the portals

Thou guard the portals, thou guard the posts.
Two moons shall find him alert to the limits shall he contest the coming victory of My soldiers.
He shall molest as he shall assault, but let him find a wall impregnable. Match subtlety with subtlety—He fights not with cudgels but with his mits—Then sharpen too thy weapons. But the battle is over—The field shall be covered with vanquished warriors and the banner of the St. Michael shall be up raised above the battle ground. Soldiers of the white army thou are victors already marked, but the fight shall rage furious. Then match, then guard, then be vigilant. In My Name you battle and there is only victory ahead.

Odomar

Guard well both institutions. Fight off attacks by keeping My Name as a talisman within your heart. You shall be conquerors. Guard the temple with good thoughts and keep calm during the raging battle. My leaders shall counsel you all and bear witness for future battle to come.

Poorvoma

Be calm, battle shall not be difficult if you prepare yourselves with My gifts. Strengthen your spirit. Be bold, place all your trust in Me and all will be well. Be true to your good thoughts. Let your intuition guide you. Be brave and firm. Have no fear. I said it.
